Synopsis

Agha Yousef is living with his only daughter. He does everything he can for a living and for his daughter's sake, hoping she is his forever. But a misunderstanding makes everything really complicated for him.

About the directors

Born in Isfahan in 1939, Ali Rafii holds Master's Degree in Sociology and PhD in Theatre, both from Sorbonne University. He's been a play writer, director and stage designer since 1974. "Agha Yousef" is the second long-length film he has directed after "The Fish Fall in Love" (2005).
